David W. Kim, MD, Ear, Nose, and Throat Specialist, Receives Award from National Medical Society

Alexandria, VA – David W. Kim, MD, of San Francisco, CA, received the American Academy of Otolaryngology—Head and Neck Surgery (AAO-HNS) Honor Award at the opening ceremony of the 2008 AAO-HNSF Annual Meeting & OTO EXPO, at the McCormick Place Convention Center in Chicago, IL.

The Academy has presents Honor Awards to medical professionals in recognition of outstanding service through the presentation of instructional courses, scientific papers, or participation on a continuing education committee or faculty.

Dr. Kim is currently at the Univ. of California San Francisco.

Featuring more than 165 scientific research sessions, 200 posters, and over 300 instruction course hours for attendees, the AAO-HNSF Annual Meeting & OTO EXPO is the largest gathering of otolaryngologists in the world.

About the AAO-HNS

The American Academy of Otolaryngology – Head and Neck Surgery (www.entnet.org), one of the oldest medical associations in the nation, represents nearly 12,000 physicians and allied health professionals who specialize in the diagnosis and treatment of disorders of the ears, nose, throat, and related structures of the head and neck. The Academy serves its members by facilitating the advancement of the science and art of medicine related to otolaryngology and by representing the specialty in governmental and socioeconomic issues. The organization's vision: "Empowering otolaryngologist-head and neck surgeons to deliver the best patient care."
